

Oceanfront Land with Tourist Commercial Zoning

This tourist commercial zoned ocean front land, priced to sell! Next door lot available!

Priced to sell even in today's market this commercial property on the ocean will not be available for long. The ocean lots with a beautiful powder sand beach even if a little rocky in places, commercial zoning and fabulous oceanfront gated condominium complex Port of Call Villas in the vicinity are only a few highlights to mention. Commercial zoning allows for complete flexibility: a single family home to apartment complex to cottages to bed and breakfast to a small boutique resort- any kind of structure can be built. Due to location and amenities possibilities are endless. Grand Bahama has always benefited greatly from its shipyard, container port and similar large industries but now the island is beginning to show signs of a renaissance when it comes to tourism and hospitality industry, ...read more on our website.
