

Easter Avenue Home

This single family home is ideal for a large family.

This large family home sits in a quiet developing neighbourhood. The master bath has the unique feature of a sunken bath while the master bed offers its own private exit out to the back porch. The kitchen is a good size and offers a large island for food preparation as well as serving as a divider for the rest of the room. The laundry facilities are in the house. There is plenty of room to develop your own style.

There is also a small one bedroom cottage on the property available for rent...read more on our website.
