A beautiful home located on Crossbones Close, a just north of the multimillion dollar waterfront dev

An ideal island retreat with over 88 feet of bulkhead frontage on the magnificent Fortune Bay waterway Open Ocean is minutes away. Port Lucayas shopping, dining and entertainment are easily accessed by land or by water. Perfectly situated on a generously sized lot with a great presence from the road side and an incredible view down the waterway you get it all with this one.

From the front gate you approach the covered entrance down an elegant walkway. Entering the home you emerge into a beautiful foyer area and are first impressed with the Grand Staircase. From the foyer on the right is the formal dining room and on the left the sitting room. The kitchen features hard wood cabinets and granite counter tops. And has a great view of the pool, dock and waterway. The family room and d...read more on our website.
