The house was designer decorated with the idea of incorporating the name "The General" in the eventual decoration, combining antique British Indian hunting art & armory, silk fabrics, with the pastel shades of the Bahamas. This is a unique, luxurious, designer house inside, located within a 5 star gated club in the friendly Bahamian atmosphere. The surrounding gardens, pool, pool bar and club house can be seen on Grand Bahama Yacht Club web site. There is a 5 minute private ferry, every half hour to Port Lucaya with all its night life, but for those seeking peace you can escape to the tranquility and security of the yacht club environment, where 24 hour security insures your total peace of mind to get even the smallest issue attended to without delay. In short, " a small peace of heaven".<b...read more on our website.
