

Lots/Acreage in Salt Pond

Lots/Acreage in Long Island

22 acres of prime waterfront property in Salt Pond Harbor. This Harbor is secured and has great depth for anchorage. Local commercial boats anchor and off load their product here at the public dock, which is 5 minutes away. Thompson Bay is a well known spot for boaters, which is a short distance. There are nearby cays accessible by small boat. This property extends from the main queen's highway to the rocky shore line which are approximately 700 feet waterfrontage. It was previously occupied by a fish house, which is at the shoreline which allow the local fisherman to sell their fresh product. There was also a private home on the property where the managers lived. Great elevation which over looks Salt Pond and Thompson Bay harbor give great sunsets or a gated residential development.
