

Single Family Home in Current

Single Family Home in Eleuthera

When walking into this quaint house in the small town of Current, you automatically feel at home. The open layout of the dining and living area is simple, yet inviting. The lofted ceilings make this 1,200-sq.ft. home feels spacious and contributes to its relaxing, island vibe. Enjoy grilling out on the front porch which overlooks the lush, green foliage that can be found throughout Current. Or you can sit on the back deck and relax while enjoying the ocean breeze. This home is in a very quiet, peaceful part of Current, yet the park, basketball courts, and convenience store are just a walk away. The famous Current Cut, where people from all over the world come to scuba dive is also within walking distance. Current is the perfect town to come relax, go fishing, visit numerous beaches and enj...read more on our website.
