Single Family Home in Abaco

Like so many others that followed, Skipper Robinson came to MOW by boat in the 1940s. As is self evident today, he chose the property with the highest elevation and the ultimate in views. With a panorama that stretches from over the "Narrows" to the Atlantic, down the North entrance into MOW harbour, over Dickey's Cay, Sandy Cay, Garden Cay and Matlows Cay and beyond over the Sea of Abaco to Elbow Cay, there is no better. This 2.45 acre very private estate with 545 front feet on the Sea of Abaco, includes a main house, dock house and 2 utility buildings. Taking fullest advantage of the view field there is the opportunity to build either one or two guest houses high above the harbour. Very rare to find is the fully protected private harbour, hewn out of limestone rock, with 275 linear ft of...read more on our website.
