Lots/Acreage in Cat Island

This 46.9 acre parcel of land located on the pristine, most western point on Cat Island, is an ideal location for a development with vacation homes or a family retreat. This large piece of land goes from sea to sea, north to south, with a sandy beach on the northern side and direct access to a stunningly beautiful, much wider beach on the south side, shared with the popular Shannas resort. The property is elevated, with little hills and valleys. A dirt road goes to and across the property and makes it easy to access. The borders have recently been marked up on each side of the lot. Arthurs Town airport (not very busy) is only 6 miles away. Cat Island is a charming island with beautiful nature and awesome water. Driving from north to south takes a little more than an hour. On the way there ...read more on our website.
